

The different boats that patients come in: taking a social work perspective

Speaker: Catherine Hanns

Catherine will help the audience gain further understanding about the unique challenges that rural services and patients can face when mental health resources are scarce and support is needed. She will look at ways that services and clinicians can help make a patient's journey a calmer and more compassionate one, speaking from her years of experience in working as a social worker.

Disclaimer

This content contains information that has been approved by reference groups comprising relevant health professionals, consumers and non-government organisations.

Content is sourced from published research literature, grey literature sources (e.g. clinical guidelines) and opinions of clinical experts. It is not intended to reflect all of the available evidence and is not intended to be exhaustive.

The authors acknowledge that it is possible that other relevant guidelines or scientific findings may have been published since the development of the website.